

Oct 1835

The USS Constitution sails to Florida to assist in suppressing the Seminole uprising. She carries an Army invasion force to land ashore, and deploys her boats on river raids.

1835-1838

The newly restored USS Constitution serves once again as flagship of the Mediterranean Squadron.